JACKSON'S

MME. SEMBRICH CONCERT

The many triumphs of Mme. Sembrich, who will appear in concert at Jackson's tomorrow evening under the direction of the Wednesday Afternoon Musical Club, have been due to three equally important causes. First, to her possession of a singularly beautiful voice. Next, to her art. And last to her character. One without the other two might have lent her such ephemeral success as has come to some of her pretended rivals. Two might have won fame for her. But without the third, all the country would not rise to had tribute to tribute on the occasion of her operatic retirement.

Mme. Sembrich's youthful experience, and wisdom of those of most girls, left their impress on her mind. She had more than her share of sorrow and yet, while it may have made her melancholy, it has not left her bitter.

If asked wherein lies the reason for the beautiful perfection of Mme. Sembrich's art, the answer would be "thoroughness." Nothing that the great soprano has ever attempted was scamped in the slightest degree. What she has done she has done with her whole heart and soul. She has loved art as most women love only their children passionately, absorbingly and perhaps, isolatingly. To a singer of her nature, the parting from opera means a sorrow which few can appreciate.

Incidentally, let it be recorded of Mme. Sembrich that, though not "...too bright or good

"For human nature's daily food"

she is, in both the broad and special senses of the words, a good woman. It is hard to see how the world, which the prima donna is leaving can be filled. Concert-goers, however, are profiting by her retirement by seizing the opportunity which her transcontinental tour is offering. Mme. Sembrich's assisting artists are Francis Rogers, baritone, and Frank La Forge, pianist.

"THE SMART SET"

For variety and dissimilitude of situations, novelties, surprises, electrical effects and scenic adornments, the latest three act musical comedy, "His Honor the Barber," which will be presented by the popular Smart Set Company at Jackson's theatre next Wednesday evening, is said to eclipse any similar entertainment offered to the public in years. In point of fun and humorous humor, the production can compare with it. If commendatory press notices and large and enthusiastic audiences are any criterion. At the head of the company is S. H. Dudley, who is fast earning the reputation of being one of America's foremost colored comedians. If Mr. Dudley as Raspberry Snow, a shiftings and master-of-fact coon, whose lofty aspirations lead him into all sorts of trouble, fails to make one laugh in spite of himself it is because that one is of a saturnine and melancholy disposition. Seats are now on sale.

"EIGHT BELLS"

The famous Bros. Byrne will be seen at Jackson's Theatre, next Thursday matinee and evening presenting their successful pantomime comedy entitled "Eight Bells," a new and original work by John F. Byrne. The Byrne Brothers stand pre-eminent in the art of stage mechanism, and invention, and this season they are said to have excelled themselves. The new "Eight Bells" is replete with new tricks, illusions and the most wonderful and laughable effects ever staged. The play is an infinite charm about a Byrne production to the little ones, as well as the older people, and to those who are blasé about seeing a stage performance. The production is a masterpiece of the many stage tricks, the wonderful mechanical effects and the many excellent specialties that are interpolated throughout the performance, keep the audience on the edge of their seats. "Eight Bells" has always been a welcome visitor to our city, but this season we are promised a performance vastly superior to past productions. A large number of people are seen in the comedy, the entire Byrne family, four in number, all a peer in original creation, which is in itself a safe guarantee of a good performance. Seats are now selling.

DE WOLFE HOPPER

Friday night Oct. 22, for one performance only DeWolf Hopper in his greatest success "The Matinee Idol" comes. The production is getting the best notices from New York as the critics have pronounced the play Hopper's best since the "Wizard of Oz."

"THIS WOMAN AND THIS MAN"

How to teach a man the responsibility of love is the motif in Avery Hopwood's new play "This Woman and This Man" in which that clever artist, Miss Minnie Motorson, will be seen at Jackson's next Saturday matinee and night. It is the much talked of theme—whether or not it is equitable for the world to make the woman pay the whole price for certain transgressions of the moral law. The Philadelphia Record in reviewing this play speaks of it in the following terms: "The familiar topic, but the author of the play is entitled to great praise for the new and unacknowledged manner in which he has treated the question of the age. The play was hugely pleased with the play and the principals were repeatedly called before the curtain after each act." The seats go on sale Wednesday morning.

POLI'S

The sensation of the season will take place at Poli's this week. One of the greatest acts, direct from Paris, will be given there. It is billed as "The Eagle and the Girl." Words are inadequate to describe this act. Suffice to say that it will set all the people of Bridgeport talking and gushing at the same time and will create one of the greatest sensations that ever took place in the city. It will be seen twice every day all this week.

There is another act on this week, bill that the Poli patrons are going to like. It is a little playlet called "Huckins Run," given by Walsh, Lynch & Co. It is full of pathos and a whole lot of first class comedy. It is going to be a big hit.

Johnnie Nott and Carrie Starr, well known in Bridgeport, Mr. Nott being an old Bridgeport boy are on this week's bill with a sketch that is going to please.

Hansen Ben All's Arabs the Quaint dancers and acrobats will give us a novel act, one that is new and attractive.

FAIRFIELD

The school teachers of the town will have a holiday next Friday to enable them to attend a teacher's convention in Hartford.

The Rowland house on Main street, near Fifth's corner, is closed for the season and Mr. Amory Rowland and family are in New Haven for the winter.

A couple of the alumni of the Hargrove school, Mr. Thomas Bradford and Mr. W. T. S. McKinney, come down from Yale university on Saturday for a week end visit.

Mr. Dawson Glover is said to be studying law at Columbia University, New York.

The Quonset Club has been presented with a handsome lounge, the gift of Rev. and Mrs. John M. Deyo.

Among the pall bearers at the funeral on Saturday of Mrs. Granville Perry were Wallace M. Bulkeley, James H. Seward and Mr. Hulse. The remains were buried in East Cemetery.

Mrs. W. E. Nichols of Greenfield Hill, is visiting in town on Cape Cod. Mrs. Fisher will reside for the winter on Maplewood avenue, Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiasam have left Greenfield Hill for Los Angeles.

Some 20 members of the Fairfield Clerical Association recently met at the residence of Rev. Allen Beaman, Rev. James A. Davenport read a paper on "The Efficiency of the Church."

At 1:30 the party went to the residence of O. B. Jennings on the hill, where luncheon was served.

Floyd Bartram has opened a law office in Stamford. He once lived in Southport, and is a graduate of a New York law school.

George Benson and family have left the beach and returned to Bridgeport. At the harvest home festival, a concert at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon there was singing by the Sunday School, and recitations by the smaller children. The exercises began at 4:30 and continued for an hour and a half. The church was elaborately and beautifully decorated with the fruits of the earth, fine specimens of all the different vegetables grown in town being heaped about the pulpit and on the platform in an artistic manner. These will be disposed of at auction after the harvest supper on Thursday night.

Master Ernest Bolsvert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bolsvert of Sandy Hook, was accidentally injured on the playground, Saturday afternoon, before the football game while engaged in company with other boys in playing with the ball. One of the smaller boys, of the leg being fractured. The boy is very comfortable at his parents' home.

Mrs. Herbert Wright recently entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of Stephen church.

St. Rose's fair opened Saturday evening at St. Mary's Hall, and will be held again next Saturday night. It is the intention of the pastor to secure the services of a constable to be in attendance who will take care of any characters who might mistake the gathering for else but a church affair. The young lady canvassers have already met with fine success. The ticketants for the sold watch are Catherine Donlon and Minnie Reardon.

The funeral of Michael Haugh who died Tuesday Oct. 12, at the Danbury hospital, at the age of 84 years, was held from his late home at Botsford at 9:30 Saturday morning and from St. Rose's church at 11 o'clock, where a high mass of requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. P. Fox. Deceased was an old and well known resident and is survived by nine children, Mrs. Mary of Berkshire, Mrs. Keatinge, Danbury, Miss Mary Haugh at home, Martin Haugh of Bethel, John P. Haugh of Shelton, Michael Haugh of Conn. Islip, L. L. Philip and Connor Haugh. Interment took place in the family plot in St. Rose's cemetery.

Miss Tessie Carmody, who was a case in the Union Business College of Bridgeport.

Congregational Notes.—Rev. Alexander Steele preached from Acts 24:5, the subject being "Paul the Ideal Reformer." Sunday school singing class will be held Friday afternoon at 3:30.

Trinity Notes.—Rev. J. H. George took his text from Kings 3:5, subject "What is a Good Worldly Ambition?" Monday, St. Luke's day, Holy Communion will be administered to the sick in private. The ladies of Trinity Guild will meet at the rectory Thursday at 2:30 p. m. to work for the Christmas sale. Confirmation classes will meet Thursday evening and Friday afternoon at the rectory.

St. Rose's Notes.—Prayers were offered for the repose of the soul of Michael Haugh. An anniversary mass of requiem will be celebrated at the Sacred Heart church, Southbury, Friday morning at 8 for the repose of the soul of James Short.

H. N. Greenman spent, Sunday at Long Hill.

Harley T. Peck of Yale, was the Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Peck.

Lawrence Lillis of Passaic, N. J., has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. Griffin P. Lillis, Sandy Hook.

A 25 cent supper will be given in the parlors of St. Mary's church, Southbury, next Wednesday under the auspices of the ladies of the church. The past reputation of these fine suppers ought to insure a large patronage.

The unprecedented elevation of 95-250 feet, more than 18 miles, recently attained by a balloon carrying registering instruments sent up by a Belgian meteorological institute.
